

Creative Writing

Creative Writing

An introduction to creative writing course covering the foundational techniques and methods of writing fiction, poetry and non-fiction. Ideal for those looking to kick-start their creative practise or develop better craft, each class would focus on specific form or technique. After collectively reading and reflecting on specific examples, participants would be encouraged to have a go themselves through writing prompts and peer review each other's work as it is submitted to our online forum.

Currently delivered online this course continues to prove extremely popular!
